

Bedtime Story For The Little Ones

UNCLE WIGGLY AND THE BAG OF SALT.

By HOWARD E. GARIN

"WHAT are you going to do this morning, Uncle Wiggly?" asked Nurse Jane. "Fuzzy Wuzzy, the mudrat lady housekeeper, as she stood on the front porch of the hollow stump bungalow and looked at Mr. Longears, the bunny rabbit."

"Nothing particularly special," answered Uncle Wiggly. "It would give me great pleasure to do something for you," he added, politely.

"Then you may," spoke Nurse Jane. "I need a bag of salt from the store. It is getting close to Christmas time, and I need salt to help freeze the ice cream."

"Right gladly will I get it for you," said Uncle Wiggly, so taking his red, white and blue striped rhesus monkey scratch down off the window sill and he hopped over the fields and through the woods.

It did not take him long to get to the store and buy the bag of salt, and he was hopping along again, carrying it under his arm, when he was wondering what he would give his animal boys and girls for Christmas, when, all of a sudden, a voice called down from out of a tree:

"Are you looking for me, Uncle Wiggly?"

"Looking for you? Why no, I guess not," answered the bunny looking up.

GAINS 20 LBS. TAKING TANLAC

Says she feels like she has taken a new lease on life.

To accomplish the wonderful results related in the statement given by Mrs. J. A. Sanford, of 1234 Cockrell street, El Paso, Tanlac is a medicine must have for every woman.

"Four years ago," said Mrs. Sanford, "I began suffering with stomach trouble, constipation, loss of appetite and weakness. I really don't know what all was the matter with me but my condition became alarming. About three years ago I was operated on but the cause of my trouble seemed to remain with me. I had such awful pains about my stomach that I was almost frantic. Then during last August I had another operation and still failed to get relief. Sleep was almost out of the question for me. I would just roll and toss nearly all night and feel more tired and worn-out in the morning than when I lay down at night. I kept going down until I weighed only ninety-eight pounds and was so nervous and weak I had to keep to my bed most all the time."

"Finally I was persuaded to try Tanlac and it was just what I have been needing so long. In just a few days I commenced to feel better and my joy can hardly be imagined when I finished my third bottle to find my suffering had gone and my weight increased twenty pounds. My appetite is good now, my nerves are calm and I get more pleasure out of eating and sleeping than I have in a long time. I set up in the mornings thoroughly refreshed and am able to do all my work. Tanlac, together with Tanlac Tablets, have certainly been a wonderful thing for me. Those who know my condition say I'm looking better than I have in four years. I really feel like I have a new lease on life and I give it all to Tanlac."

Tanlac is sold in El Paso by Kelly & Peckham Co., Inc., and Pangle's Drug Store, under the personal direction of a special Tanlac representative—Adv.

THIS isn't one of those fake free treatment offers you have seen so many times. We don't offer to give you something for nothing, but we do guarantee that you can try this wonderful treatment, entirely at our risk, and this guarantee is backed by your local druggist.

This makes the offer one which you can absolutely depend upon, because the druggist with whom you have been trading would not stand behind the guarantee if he did not know it to be an honest and legitimate one.

Hunt's Salve, formerly called Hunt's Cure, has been sold under absolute money back guarantee for more than thirty years. It is especially compounded for the treatment of Eczema, Itch, Ring Worm, Tetter, and other itching skin diseases.

Thousands of letters testify to its curative properties. M. Tinerlin, a reputable dry goods dealer in Durant, Oklahoma, says: "I suffered with Eczema for ten years, and spent $10,000.00 for doctors' treatments, without result. One box of Hunt's Cure entirely cured me."

Don't fail to give Hunt's Salve a trial—price 75 cents, from your local druggist, or direct by mail if he does not handle it.

Beauty Chats - By Edna Kent Forbes

Arranging the Hair.

SO much of a woman's prettiness depends upon the way she fixes her hair that it seems a pity so few women really understand the most becoming style for their special type.

Of course fashions in hair dressing vary a few years are they were wearing it down into their eyes; then they all switched over to a severely combed back style that was harsh and trying to most faces. At the moment the prevailing style is moderate and the most becoming of all.

And it isn't likely in war times to run to many changes.

So you can do your hair whichever way you choose and feel quite safe on the side of fashion. And one very charming way is pictured, though to copy this your hair must come at least to the waist.

To wear it this way, draw the hair loosely from the face, pulling it over the ears if your face is thin or your nose large. Hold with a small side comb at each side, and brush the hair in a loose plait down the back. Take this plait it around the head and pin it at the back of the head. This is classically simple and shows off the shape of the head and the hair itself to advantage. And the braid gives an effect of waving to otherwise straight locks.

A girl with a receding chin should never wear a low-drawn knot, for it emphasizes the bad chin line. A good profile a knot about opposite the nose is both youthful and becoming, with an irregular one the knot looks best quite high on the head. This latter style is rather more mature, by the way.

Questions and Answers. Anxious Reader—If you want to put on fresh drink four glasses of half milk and half cream every day—between meals and before going to bed. And eat fattening things like olive oil, mayonnaise and potatoes, and thick soups and the fat cuts of meats.

But sweet cream won't bleach the skin. Butter milk, however, is a good bleach, so is lemon juice mixed with its own quantity of rose water and a dash of glycerine. Pure powder—talc powder is best—will not cause blackheads. You can get rid of these—your digestion is good and the bowels regular—by washing the face daily with hot water and friction of flannel.

Today's Daintiest Dish By CONSTANCE CLARKE.

Classic Beer with Poached Eggs.

It matters not how little an amount of cold meat is left over from the day before, a meat dish may be made from it that will satisfy the hunger of anyone, even to the most fastidious. This being true, why not utilize a hash for dinner, and in doing so save the butcher's bill? To make the hash, slice two onions and lightly brown them in a frying pan with a small amount of fat; add the meat, cut into small dice, and four chopped potatoes; moisten with a teaspoonful of stock and a teaspoonful of Worcestershire sauce, a pinch of ground nutmeg, salt and pepper to taste. Cook for ten minutes, stirring well while cooking. Serve on a hot dish with poached eggs laid on top. No meat is wasted, and three good meat dishes have been enjoyed at a small cost. —Tomorrow—Madeline Cakes.

VAUDEVILLE THEATERS NOT EXEMPT FROM LIGHT ORD.

Washington, D. C., Dec. 12.—Requests by vaudeville theaters for exemption from the recent lightless night order was denied today by the fuel administration. Fuel administrator Garfield today wired the Vaudeville Managers' Protective Association at New York.

"Although appreciating the patriotic services rendered by vaudeville theaters, the country, we cannot permit exemption in your favor allowing excessive use of fuel to generate power," the order says. "Theaters are largely in excess of limited production. It is unfair to the public to allow display advertising. We rely upon your patriotic cooperation to induce your members to comply locally with our ruling."

COLUMBIA threatens war with the United States if we refuse to recognize her rights to Panama. She will first seek through a commission to induce the United States to recognize Colombia's rights under the treaty of 1846, and if the commission fails she will ask for the arbitration of the question to the arbitration court.

There appears to be a coal oil and gasoline war brewing between the Waters-Pierce Oil company and the new company that is being formed in this city. C. H. Lawrence, of this city, has come against the trust and has made arrangements to get necessary oil from Colombia. If St. Milk-Satch, late manager of the Waters-Pierce interests here, and R. L. Berkeley are supposed to be in the new company.

August Kiefer, first assistant chief of police at San Antonio, has been indicted by the grand jury, growing out of the lawlessness in the car strike. Five members of the Brewery Workers' union were indicted for criminal conspiracy in the car strike. In business in violation of the anti-trust laws. Kiefer, the indicted official, is manager of the union.

Chris. H. Meyer, president of the Western Federation of Miners, and Max Malin, president of the Denver Smeltermen's union, have been expelled by the police and citizens to leave Pueblo. A police captain gave them a half-hour notice to leave town or go to jail last night. They have been here a week trying to organize the laborers of the four local smelters.

Senator Morgan today introduced a resolution declaring that the president has no right to wage war against any foreign power without the consent of congress when such action is in peace with the United States, that the provision of the canal treaty between the United States and Panama is in effect a declaration of war with Colombia, and that the intervention of the United States in preventing Colombia suppressing the revolution of Panama is contrary to the law of neutrality and the law of nations.
